

International 2011

Application Details

CLOSING DATE FOR 2011: November 29th 2010.

Applications must be postmarked on or before this day. No late applications will be considered. E-mail or fax applications cannot be accepted.

Criteria for selection

- Your intended professional development objectives and/or project for the residency
- Your relevant professional experience in arts practice and cultural exchange
- Your ability to carry out the residency and to fulfill the expectations detailed on page 1 of the 'Letter of Agreement'
- The relevance of proposed Host Organisation to your objectives/project and future professional goals
- Your potential to apply benefits of the exchange to fields of practice in Australia
- Your previous experience in or commitment to working with the country of your selected Host Organisation
- The quality of your work as demonstrated by the sample you provide
- A capacity to work directly with available materials in your Host Organisation's community

Your application should include (in the following order):

- A cover page summary (page 1 of the application as attached)
- A short (2 page limit) statement on why you would find such an exchange residency valuable and what you hope to achieve.
- A CV (no more than 2 pages)
- A budget

Your application MUST address the selection criteria above. Please note if and with whom any other funding applications for this project are currently pending or approved

Support material and application presentation (please label):

- Please label all support material clearly and note that it will not be returned
- Because your application will be photocopied and sent to the members of Punctum's Peer Assessment Panel, please use plain white A4 paper and do not bind or staple pages

Selection Process:

- Applications will be assessed in early December by Punctum's Peer Assessment Panel, which includes highly experienced contemporary arts and cultural exchange practitioners, academics, and industry personnel.

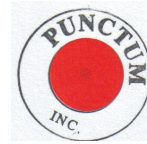

Applicants will be advised on the final selection in December.

Enquiries should be directed to:

Jude Anderson: Artistic Director – Punctum hq@punctum.com.au

Applications should be sent to:
